MEMORANDUM FOR US Marine Forces Reserve MARFORRESS, ATTN: Facilities

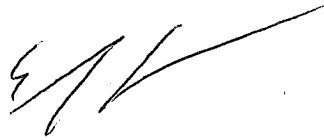

SUBJECT: State Facility Board decision for Project P-201, Parachute Drying Tower

1. Reference your request and requirement for an early approval for an update to the Parachute Drying Tower on Joint Base Lewis McChord (JBLM), Washington.
2. In summary, the requirements expanded which increased the cost of this project to $19.72 million vice the initial $8 million. In order for you to move forward with the budget cycle, you needed WA-Facilities Board approval prior to the annual meeting in July 2019.
3. The following members were contacted and gave either concurrence or non-concurrence to this increase:
 - a. Lt. Col. John McKinley, WA-Air National Guard; Concurred.
 - b. Mark Jaques, US Air Force Reserve, Facility Manager 446th CES; Concurred.
 - c. Rima Blackwell, US Navy Reserve, Public Works; Concurred.
 - d. Tom Tolman, US Army IMCOM, Public Works for Joint Base Lewis-McChord (Active Army Component); concurred.
 - e. Bud Berendes, US Army Reserve, 88th Regional Support Command; Concurred.
 - f. MAJ Eric Trovillo, WA-Army National Guard, CFMO-Facility Planner and SFB Chairman; Concurred.
4. Based on the unanimous concurrence by the above members of the State Facilities Board, and seeing no issues with this project, this board as a whole concurs with the cost increase while maintain this project under unilateral construction.
5. Ensure you brief this project to the next scheduled State Facility Board to occur in July 2019.
