4. Project recommendations:

MAARNG: The Massachusetts Army National Guard presented a total of six (6) projects for review. All of the projects recommended for unilateral recertification. A new Readiness Center at Camp Curtis Guild to support the new Cyber Battalion. Two (2) projects are ranges (Multi- Purpose Machine Gun Range and Automated Record Fire Range) for an Army National Guard Training Site; these were certified as unilateral due to the training mission. All training facilities and ranges at the MTA Camp Edwards are available for joint use to support training requirements though construction is certified as unilateral. The MAARNG discussed West Boylston Armed Forces Readiness Center (AFRC) and Field Maintenance Shop (FMS) project as potentially joint projects with the USAR. The USAR stated that it would rank 10th on their list without unless Congressionally or State directed.

USAR: The Army Reserve presented a total of one (1) project (Worcester Readiness Center); which was recertified unilateral due to geographic locations and specific mission requirements.

ANG: The Air National Guard 102nd did not attend but had a total of 3 projects, all three were certified as unilateral.

The Air National Guard 104th Westfield/Barnes ANGB presented eight (8) projects that were recertified unilateral due to geographic, stationing, and mission constraints. The list is pending change depending on potential new mission and aircraft requirements.

USAFR: The Air Force Reserve presented a total of 6 projects two of which were recommended for recertification of unilateral construction due to their geographic locations and specific mission requirements. The indoor range is under construction at 18% completion, the ISO Maintenance Hangar is in the source selection process and the other four (4) projects remain unchanged.

USMCR: The USMCR presented 0 projects. Has no projects planned or in execution in Massachusetts. USMCR moved to accept 2019 minutes, motion approved and passed.

USNR: The USNR presented 0 projects.
